

Alpe Adria Tour Regulation 2023

ART. 1 - PARTICIPATION

The ALPE ADRIA TOUR (AAT) 2023 circuit is a Mediofondo and Granfondo circuit and a final time trial reserved for all cyclists regularly registered for the year 2023 with UCI, FCI, ACSI Ciclismo and Sports Promotion Bodies recognized by CONI, which provides individual points rankings.

Participation in the AAT Circuit is foreseen by registering using the form that can be downloaded from the website www.helphaiti.it – or directly on the website – and the individual fee.

The GRID of MERIT at the start, the rankings, the participation gadget if classified, awards and final party will be GUARANTEED.

For those who register to the “Only AAT”, the race registrations will be regulated by individual Organizations and the participant in the Circuit will have to register for the race individually (20 euros do not include registrations for races)

All subscribers will be classified with the presence specified as follows: 3 completed races in the circuit of 4.
By “presence” we intend the conclusion of the race and placement in the rankings.

ART. 2 - RACES AND DATES

In 2023 the AAT circuit consists of 5 races, two on choice, as they are on the same day:

- 1. 21 May – Corsa per Haiti – Cividale del Friuli (UD) – GF-MF
- 2. 04 June – Kaertnen Rad-Marathon – Bad Kleinkirchheim (A) – GF-MF
2. 04 June – Zoncolan Day – uphill race – Tolmezzo (UD) – single route
- 3. 11 June – Maraton Franja BTC City – Ljubljana (SLO) – GF-MF
- 4. 30 July – Gran Fondo dei Templari – Pordenone (PN) – single route

When registering, must be selected which race is intended to participate in on June 4, given the concurrence of the dates. The different registration fees are shown below (Art. 6 - REGISTRATION FEE AND METHODS)

The races of the circuit include two courses, one of the Granfondo and one of the Mediofondo, or a single course valid for both circuits (Granfondo and Mediofondo).

ART. 3 - FORMULA

The athlete can choose to participate in both the Granfondo and Mediofondo circuits proposed by the various organizations, taking into account that to access the final ranking it is mandatory to have completed 3 races scheduled in the same type of route (Granfondo or Mediofondo - the routes "Unique" will be valid for both types).

The members of the AAT Circuit will be included in a GRID reserved for them, which may also be concurrent with other Circuits, to which the individual events belong. AAT participants will benefit from a dorsal number assigned according to the regulations of each individual event. For the preparation of the ranking, the name, surname, date of birth, ASD of belonging of the member will be taken into account.

ART. 8 - SCORES

All the athletes registered in the Alpe Adria Tour Circuit will be extrapolated from the absolute rankings of the various tests and assigned the score starting from 1 point to the first classified, 2 points to the second, etc. for all classified based on the AAT circuit.

ART. 9 - RANKING

The final classification of each circuit (Granfondo and Mediofondo) will be determined by the sum of the points that the athlete has earned in the various tests.

The criterion adopted is to reward whoever achieves the lowest score.

The provisional rankings will be published on the website www.helphaiti.it

Any complaints will be accepted within 5 days of publication of the rankings and sent to the e-mail address granfondodeitemplari@gmail.com.

ART. 10 - AWARDS

The final awards will be held, if possible, in attendance by November.

A GADGET WILL BE DELIVERED TO ALL RANKED PARTICIPANTS - Any other prizes will be communicated by the organizing committee during the year.
